

Dr. Ismail Dagli, Ludwigsburg, Germany
Executive Board Member Aumovio SE, Frankfurt, Germany

Education:

- PhD in Computer Science (Autonomous Driving), University of Tübingen, Germany
Thesis: Intelligent sensor data fusion and situation analysis for Adaptive Cruise Control systems
- M.Sc. in Electrical Engineering, Brunel University London, United Kingdom
Thesis: Remote Interrogation of Embedded Systems via the Internet
- B.Sc. in Computer Engineering, Esslingen University of Applied Sciences, Germany
Thesis: Implementation of a Media-Management System in Networked Vehicles

Professional Experience:

2025 – present	Member of the Executive Board and Head of the Autonomous and Commercial Mobility Business Area, AUMOVIO SE, Frankfurt, Germany
2024 – 2025	Board Member & Head of the Autonomous Mobility Business Area, Automotive Sector, Continental AG
2022 – 2023	Board Member & Head of Smart Mobility Business Area, Automotive Sector, Continental AG, Frankfurt, Germany
2021 – 2024	Supervisory Board Member Elektrobit, Erlangen, Germany
2020 – 2022	SVP R&D Driver Assistance Systems, Continental AG, Frankfurt, Germany
2017 – 2020	SVP Business Unit Steering Systems, Bosch Group, Germany
2015 – 2017	Project Lead M&A, Bosch Group, Germany
2008 – 2015	Held several leadership positions within the Bosch Group, including VP Engineering & Project Management North America and Head of Software Projects, Bosch Group, Germany
2005 – 2007	Expert Functional Safety and International Management Trainee, Daimler AG, Germany
2001 - 2005	Research Engineer and PhD candidate for AI-based autonomous driving systems, Daimler AG, Germany